

- Retrieve images from the provided URLs.
- Use Sharp to reduce image size and optimize them.
- Store the compressed images in a storage solution like AWS S3 or local storage.
- Update the product records with the new URLs for the processed images.

- Verify the integrity and format of the uploaded CSV file.
- Generate a unique request ID for the current process.
- Save the initial request details in the database.
- Provide the client with the generated request ID.

